

Company

BEROLAN offers a special service: custom-formulated compounds.

Compounds can be custom-formulated to meet your exact performance requirements. The sequence of the mixing process can be defined by the customer. As a consequence the efficiency of the additives can be improved and possibly quantities required can be reduced. However these special mixtures will be produced only starting from a quantity of 5 tons.